“

Before joining the course with EFE-Maroc, my job search was a rewarding but sometimes challenging period. I spent time exploring various opportunities in my field, which allowed me to develop an in-depth understanding of the job market.

I have encountered challenges in aligning my skills with market expectations, but these experiences have also motivated me to seek solutions and invest in my professional development.

For me, the training with EFE-Maroc represents a strategic opportunity to hone my skills, meet the needs of the market and give a new impetus to my career.

The training has far exceeded my expectations, meeting my professional needs in an exceptional way. The modules focusing on soft skills and ‘Work Readiness’ were particularly instructive.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to our trainer, Ms Lamia BASRAOUI, whose expertise and passion greatly contributed to making this experience enriching and relevant.

After taking this course, my professional life underwent a significant transformation. The skills I acquired have boosted my self-confidence, improved my interpersonal communication and prepared me for the world of work. These changes have opened up new opportunities, making it easier not only for me to integrate into the professional world, but also for me to find a new job.
